A TOWN DOG IN THE COUNTRY. 6/- net

Illustrated in colour by G. VERNON STOKES, with descriptive verses by B. PARKER.
Mr. Stokes's pictures describing the Bull Dog's adventures in the country are irresistible, and the verses by Miss Parker add piquancy to the pictures. The children will have difficulty in getting this book out of the hands of their elders.

Early Autumn Publications

*Lothrop Stoddard's New BookRacial Realities in Europe

By LOTHROP STODDARD, author of "The Revolt Against Civilisation," "The Rising Tide of Colour," "The New World of Islam."

With illustrations and maps. 8vo, cloth, 15s. net.

Mr. Stoddard in his latest book deals exhaustively with the distribution of races throughout Europe and explains the bearing of this distribution as it has reacted and still reacts upon the international policy, claiming that the key to the solution of international difficulties may be found in an intelligent study of the racial problems involved.

The Character of Races

Their Formation and Modification by Environment

By ELLSWORTH HUNTINGTON, Explorer, Anthropologist, Professor at Yale University, author of "Civilisation and Climate," "World Power and Evolution."

Illustrated with maps and photographs. 8vo, cloth, 25s. net.

This is a deeply interesting study of the ways in which racial character is moulded and modified by environment to affect the development of man.

Greater France in Africa

By WILLIAM M. SLOANE, Professor of History in Columbia University, and author of "The Powers and Aims of Western Democracy," "The French Revolution and Religious Reform," &c. Illustrated. 8vo, cloth, 12s. 6d. net.

The author, who recently visited Morocco and Algiers at the invitation of the Committee France-America, has written a fascinating book of travel with a broad background of history and sociology.

The Nature, Practice and History of Art

By H. VAN BUREN MAGONIGLE, F.A.I.A., Architect, Gold Medalist of the Architectural League of New York.

With numerous illustrations. 8vo, cloth, 10s. 6d. net.

In its inception intended for the student of art the scope of this work has been materially broadened and the general reader will find it a fascinating epitome of the history and philosophy of the fine arts as certainly as will the professional and amateur profit by its lucid exposition of technical processes.

An Architectural Pilgrimage in Old Mexico

By ALFRED C. BOSSOM, F.R.I.B.A.

With more than 150 photographs and drawings. Large 4to. £4 4s. special net.

"Architects and all who take an intelligent interest in the mother art will find this book a treasure trove of useful suggestion and lively departures from the hard and fast rules of the schools."—The Observer.

Plays by Jacinto Benavente : Fourth Series

Translated, with an introduction, by JOHN GARRETT UNDERHILL. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 10s. 6d. net. Containing: "The School of Princesses," "A Lady," "The Magic of an Hour," "The Field of Ermine."

"Benavente's power of giving concrete form to the intangible and elusive qualities of human aspiration quickens the perception and thrills the imagination."—Times Literary Supplement.

"The breadth of range of subject and range of treatment is extraordinary and always successful, and that is why I think that their author must be as accomplished as any dramatist living—perhaps the most accomplished."—LENNOX ROBINSON in the Observer.

Gardens

A Notebook of Plans and Sketches

By J. C. N. FORESTIER, Chief Engineer of Gardens and Walks, and Custodian of the Bois de Boulogne, Paris. Translated from the French by HELEN MORGENTHAU FOX.

Profusely illustrated. 4to, cloth, £2 12s. 6d. net.

In this book the author deals particularly with the making of small gardens, going into the most careful details of dimensions, varieties of plants, methods of planting, hedges, fountains, &c. The work is lavishly illustrated with drawings, with plans and with combinations of the two so carefully done as to leave no possibility of doubt in the reader's mind as to the method the author is describing.

Lippincott's New Books

HISTORIC WALL-PAPERS: From their Inception to the Introduction of Machinery

By NANCY McCLELLAND. A limited Edition de Luxe. Twelve full-page Colour Plates, 250 Illustrations in Double-tone, and a Chart of Periods.
 Quarto. Handsomely bound. 25 10s. net.

This magnificent volume is the only thoroughly representative book on the subject of historic wallpapers yet published. It includes the results of a serious, scholarly study of rare examples and original documents. The author has succeeded in tracing for the first time the development of the introduction of machine printing. The exquisite French papers are treated and illustrated with unusual completeness as are the finest examples of England and America.

SPANISH GARDENS AND PATIOS

By MILDRED STAPLEY BYNE and ARTHUR
 BYNE. Five Colour Plates and 175 Illustrations.
 Quarto. 23 10s. net.

This volume comes as the only authoritative work on the subject in any language—a revelation to artists, architects and all devotees of beauty in garden or design.
 The authors, who are the greatest authorities on Spanish Architecture and Garden Architecture, live in Spain, where they are constantly carrying on their investigations. They have succeeded in producing a book of rare and exceptional beauty. The illustrations, almost all of which are full-page size, are a very remarkable collection.

 a whole, through trips, three previous transcontinental journeys, and 25,000 miles of travel during the past summer.

THE STORY OF THE SEAMAN

Being an account of the Ways and Appliances of Seafarers and of Ships from the Earliest Time until Now. By JOHN FORSYTH MEIGS. In Two Volumes. Illustrated. 60s. net.

An epic of the seaman. A remarkable account by a man who has seen long service at sea. Captain Meigs not only knows the romance and adventure of seafaring, but has also a scientific, practical knowledge of every appliance of a ship, every duty of a crew, and the historical development of sailing craft from the Vikings to modern submarines.
